

ABOUT ME

Motivated and reliable professional with practical experience in electrical work and solar installation and maintenance, along with growing computer and digital skills. I am a fast learner, adaptable, detail-oriented, and comfortable learning new tools and working independently. I am interested in remote opportunities where I can apply my skills, develop professionally, and contribute effectively to a team.